

June 24, 1926.

Miss Agnes Smedley,
Pariserstr 4,
Berlin, W. 15,
Germany.

Dear Miss Smedley:

Both Mrs. Sanger and I were glad to get your letter. We always want to know how you are and hope so much that you will soon be able to tell us the good news that you are very much better. It would be a great joy to those of us who know you to get such news.

On June 22nd, Mrs. Sanger sent you $50.00 through the American Express Company. This went to the above address, and I hope there will be no red tape in getting it.

It is too bad that the hundred dollars went to the fund instead of you direct. I wish they had given you that extension of time before the amount was paid, but it is too late now.

Thank you very much for the clipping you sent. It shows that India needs to be educated on proper lines. Every Hindu that I have met gives the same argument and it is so difficult to make them recognize the over-population question.

You have no doubt received Mrs. Sanger's cable by now. The first shipment arrived. Please send the remainder of the order to the same address.

Thank you for asking about myself. Yes, I have the same keen interest in birth control as I had five or six years ago. In fact, the more I see of human misery and suffering, the stronger I feel for keeping off the unborn of this chaotic world. It is wonderful how you stood by India all these struggling years. I feel if all the natives of India, or even half of them worked as you have in such ceaseless, self-sacrificing manner, I am sure their victory would be near.

Miss Agnes Smedley.

Page 2.

Kitty Marion has just left for England. She certainly has been on the job. She has been perfectly wonderful in her efforts to scatter birth control seeds. I do not know how long she will stay in England. You know she loves England and we can never tell whether Kitty may not prefer to remain there for some indefinite time, although she has become an American citizen. She has asked for you so often, and was always glad to hear any good news about you.

My love to you and all good wishes.
Also Mrs. Sanger sends her best.

Sincerely yours,

AL:RM

P.S. enclose letter from Chase.