Abfender:

can telephone any minute. At least I think that is the reason for the table between. And I am glad about the private bath. They also don't like them.

I'll look in at some pension as I pass to my doctor each day. They will be shocked that you eat oranges for breakfast, for it is not customary.

I am darned glad you are coming. Lajpat Rai is in Geneva and is coming also. You will just about meet him here.

Love, dear.
