Dearest Florence:

Glad to have your card.

Frau Grabisch is going to America for certain and wants to rent her apartment for 6 months. I'll ask her about the price, etc., and let you know; then I'll see if she would let you have it. If not, there are loads of apartments for rent now. I've met a girl & become friends with her; she is a close personal friend of the director of the Hochschule für Musik and I've told her of Sam. That gang is the very thing for him for this director is the modernist of modern composers & his things shock people by their strangeness. She says he will be delighted with Sam.

I'm not well. I'll tell you all when you come as I'm not in the writing mood. Except to write you a story which was related to me by Mrs. Grabisch! It is:

It is:

There was a minister who once spent the night with a lovely lady. The next morning he was so pleased that he asked to pay. She refused: "No! No!" she protested to his appeals. So he returned the next week. The next morning however, she said to him: "$100 please." He was astounded.

"But you told me it was nothing!"
He protested.

"Oh that time," she explained, "You see, that was being done for the movies, and they paid!"

So there you are! I call that an improvement in Mrs. G. night work?

Love -

Agnes.

Let me know when you come to Berlin.
