I've just read Mrs. Chaus' letter. I doubt very much if she is the sort to have in your movement. I may be wrong, but I think she is a sentimentalist, and perhaps an occultist person. I'd wager she's a Theosophist or God knows what. I know the type, and although I've written her to see me, I hate it. She's bound to bound me for weeks. I've noticed that this deeply spiritual and idealist religious person always places great, great emphasis on money. Much money as Mrs. Chaus says. Spiritualism seems to get tangled up with money in a strange way!

Judging from letters, I shall meet Mrs. Chaus with a prejudice against her. I'll try to keep an open mind but I'll be cautious.

Yours,
