By EUGENE WEST and WILLIAM REDDING writers of BROADWAY ROSE

This is the sequel song to those tremendously popular songs
WHEN I'M GONE YOU'LL SOON FORGET and WHEN YOU'RE GONE I WON'T FORGET

A delightfully sentimental song with a haunting melody, once heard never forgotten. It is the old, old story that makes the heart grow fonder in absence.

Introduction for piano. The score is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a f (forte) dynamic. The melody in the right hand features a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The piece concludes with a rall. (rallentando) marking.

First line of the song. The vocal line starts with the lyrics: "When you're gone I won't forget you, And I'll miss you when you". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern as the introduction. The lyrics continue: "Once my heart was filled with glad-ness, And the world seemed bright and".

Second line of the song. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "go; fair; I re-call the day you met me, In my life there was no sad-ness,". The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and a consistent eighth-note bass line.
