It's af - ter twelve said
When Brown came out old

Jones and I must run home like a deer — My wife gets wild when Jon - sey said she sure did beat you up — Look out old man here one o'clock draws near — Said Brown you have no spunk at all you comes an - o - ther cup — Said Brown when I went in she threw her ought to be a - shamed why don't you be like me I have mine arms a - round my neck and then said Jones she threw you out a tamed _____ Come on a - round the block with me you ti - mid lit - tle wreck _____ But are you going to stand for that and Brownie answered mouse And I will try to show you how a man goes in his house.

"No" Just watch me go - ing in a - gain and then stick for the show.

Chorus

He went in like a li - on a wild rag - ing li - on and He went in like a li - on a wild rag - ing li - on and

p-f

when he got in - side he slammed the door — He said well, here I when he got in - side he slammed the door — And then he hollered am — And I don't give a - con - ti - nen - tal then he gave an aw - ful well — Now here's where I raise don't you throw that I won't play with you no roar — But a great big cup of Mo - cha hit him on the more — I was on - ly jok - ing Dear - ie I want Jones to co - co Fol - lowed by some Huck - le - ber - ry jam — And hear me Here's ten dol - lars now who's Boss I am — And as his wi-fey pulled out all the whis-kers on his chin she whispered I'm a as she took the ten she up-per-cut him on the chin and hollered you bring bet-ter man than you are Gun-ga Din, He went in like a twen-ty-five the next time you come in, He went in like a li-on, a wild rag-ing li-on when she got through he

came out like a lamb. He went lamb.
came out like a lamb. He went lamb.
