Early To Bed And Early To Rise Never Made Anyone Wise

Lyric by
ALEX GERBER

Music by
ABNER SILVER

Brightly (Not too fast)

Vamp Till Ready

You all re - mem - ber that pro - verb of old, — Time and a - gain, —
 Doc - tors will tell — you that sleep - ing is great, — But they them - selves —

You've heard it told, — That earl - y to bed — and earl - y to rise — Will make you
 Will stay up late — The proph - ets of old — were all ver - y wise — Still they learned wealth - y, health - y and wise; — I thought I'd try — it to see. if it works, — from the stars and the skies; — Take your in - ven - tors, the men with i - deas, —

And I stopped roam - ing a - bout, I went to sleep at ten,
 No - tice the hours they keep, They stud - y and they toil,

Six found me up a - gain, But it's all wrong I found out.
 Burn up the mid - night oil, While all the world is a - sleep.

REFRAIN

Earl - y to bed, and earl - y to rise, Will make you strong, but won't make you wise, Earl - y each night, out goes the light,

Then while you're nap - pin', you miss the things that hap - pen;

You re - a - lize, — an owl is wise, — At night is when he

o - pens up his eyes, — Take your milk - man, he gets up at five, —

Still he looks more — dead than a - live, — Cause earl - y to bed, — and earl - y to rise, — Nev - er made an -

1. — y - one wise. 2. wise. —

REFRAIN Dramatic

Stars shine high a-bove, In this hour of love,
Here 'neath the star-light I hear your voice a-whisp'ring,
Telling again that you love me!

My own, my Starlight Love!
Glorious days of June,
Love day seems to say
Hasten to heart ne'er to part,
How I long for that day,
Love's old sweet song for aye!
