Roses Bring Dreams Of You.

Words and Music by HERBERT INGRAHAM.

INTRO. Andante.

The piano introduction consists of two systems of music. The first system is in 7/8 time and features a melody in the right hand with a mf dynamic and a bass line in the left hand. The second system continues the melody and bass line, marked with rall. and ending with a fermata over the final note.

The first system of the vocal line includes the lyrics: "A - lone I sit this Sum-mer morn, The ro - ses all in bloom, Bring / roamed the world a - lone since then, That day you proved un-true, But". The piano accompaniment below is in 7/8 time, starting with a p dynamic and including a rall. section.

The piano accompaniment for the first verse continues from the previous system, maintaining the 7/8 time signature and including a rall. section.

The second system of the vocal line includes the lyrics: "mem'-ries of the gold - en past, That fa - ded all too soon. I / I've been, Oh! so lone - some, dear, For just one word from you. 'Twas". The piano accompaniment below is in 7/8 time, starting with a a tempo dynamic and including a rall. section.

The piano accompaniment for the second verse continues from the previous system, maintaining the 7/8 time signature and including a rall. section.

Music by
SEYMOUR FURTH.

CHORUS Tenderly

“When they're bring-ing in the corn, I'll be think-ing-Jes-sie dear, Of that sweet love you gave me When you were with me here. Where we roamed a-mid the clo-ver and birds sang sweet at morn, I'll be wait-ing for you Jes-sie When they're bring-ing in the corn.
