And Other Things.

Words by
GEO. TOTTEN SMITH.

Music by
MELVILLE J. GIDEON.

Moderato.

The musical score is written in common time (C) and consists of three systems. Each system includes a piano accompaniment (left and right hands) and a vocal line. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The lyrics are: 'Min - er - va Peck from the town of Hors - es Neck, Was the un - ex - pect - ed A man she met nev - er cared for girls and yet, Miss Min - er - va held him kind; — You nev - er knew just ex - act - ly what she'd do, When fast; — She said "He'll do" and with - in a week or two, She had'. The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand. The vocal line is a simple melody with lyrics written below the notes.

3.

One day they went to the beach on pleasure bent;
 Said Minerva "Oh let's swim!"
 The surf was rough, but "Nervy" for a bluff,
 Said "Watch me dive now, Jim;"
 She tried to dive, but gracious sakes alive!
 In the surf she was a mark;
 "Don't be a dunce," said Jim, "Come out at once!"
 She replied "I can't, till dark!"

REFRAIN.

She had great big eyes of baby blue,
 And a pretty little pug nose too,
 Golden hair of which the poet sings;
 "If I came out I'd blush to death,
 Because my dear, I've lost my breath
 And other things— other things."

4.

Upon the street once Minerva chanced to meet,
 With a dog forlorn and wet
 She picked him up, and remarked "Poor little pup"
 "I'll keep him for a pet!"
 She took him home and let the doggie roam,
 'Round the flat, then went away
 When she got back, the flat looked like the track
 Of a young cyclone at play.

REFRAIN.

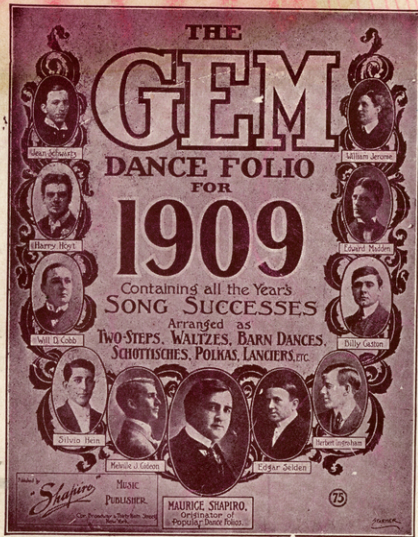

She had great big eyes of baby blue,
 And a pretty little pug nose too,
 Golden hair of which the poet sings;
 She had to give that dog away,
 Because he was so full of play
 And other things— other things.

5.

Minerva thought after all she really ought
 To do something odd or queer;
 She said "This rage for Salome on the stage
 Gives me a great idea,"
 She got a chance to do this foolish dance
 At a Vaud'ville house uptown;
 But in her whirls she lost her string of pearls,
 And they rang the curtain down.

REFRAIN.

She had great big eyes of baby blue,
 And a pretty little pug nose too,
 Golden hair of which the poet sings;
 Though shy of much ability,
 She showed her versatility
 And other things— other things.
