heart-ed, His stead-y girl from him have part-ed.
do so, But found that he was not Ca-ru-so.

And all the trou-ble it start-ed Just be-cause he could-n't sing
And still his love for her grew so That he felt like su-i-cide

"Love me and the world is mine" She said an-oth-er beau had caught her,
But in-stead he got a tide— She looked like Fluf-fy Ruff-les, sis - ter.

Be-cause that love song he had taught her. She gave him back the ring he
He nev-er tho't how much he'd miss her, It knocked him one big aw-ful bought her, Then po-lite-ly told him to re - sign.

twist - er, Just to lose his fu - ture pret - ty bride.
