We ride upon our surface cars at six o'clock each night,
We grab a strap, if we're in luck, there's not a seat in sight,
The men who run the trolley roads tell us there's room to spare,
And when we say we need more cars, we're crazy they declare.

CHO.

Dr. Munyon, Dr. Munyon, what are we going to do,
We need you it's true, bring your medicine chest with you,
Can it be we're going blind, oh, help us we entreat,
For when get on a trolley car, we cannot see a seat

5

Good old John D was brought to court, they gave him quite a fine,
For out of all his millions they have fined him twenty-nine,
It worries him so much he only eats four meals a day,
It was alright to fine poor John, but who can make him pay?

CHO

Dr. Munyon, Dr. Munyon, what are we going to do,
We need you it's true, bring your medicine chest with you,
Give John D a sleeping powder when he goes to dine,
For he'll have to be unconscious or he'll never pay that fine

6

There are a lot of editors who fear the thoughts of war,
Their papers want our battleships to shun our western shores,
Tho' Uncle Sam can hold his own in any kind of scraps,
These papers think we ought to crawl before the little Japs

CHO

Dr. Munyon, Dr. Munyon, what are we going to do,
We need you it's true, bring your medicine chest with you,
Help these weak kneed editors and fix their nerves up, please,
For they seem to think that Uncle Sam cant fix the Japanese

7

For years and years the Yankee girl as beauty's queen was crowned,
A type of healthy womanhood no better could be found,
But since the Gibson girl, is here, we're worried it is true,
She wears a blank expression, and her back is crooked too.

CHO

Dr. Munyon, Dr. Munyon, what are we going to do,
We need you it's true, bring your medicine chest with you,
Fix those Gibson cripples and their monumental curls,
Take the bends out of their backs, so they can walk like human girls.

8

They've got an innovation now in this land of free,
A man who doesn't like his wife, finds his affinity,
Affinities are nice young things that haven't any pride,
But if this isn't stopped at once, 'twill cause race suicide

CHO

Dr. Munyon, Dr. Munyon, what are we going to do,
We need you it's true, bring your medicine chest with you,
Cant you fix a pill at once to cure all wives who scold,
Or the men will find affinities and marriage will be cold.

9

Republicans can't find a president for nineteen eight
They're looking all around to get a good strong candidate,
They say that Fairbanks is too thin, I'm told he drinks at that,
And Secretary Taft won't do, because he is too fat

CHO

Dr. Munyon, Dr. Munyon, what are we going to do,
We need you it's true, bring your medicine chest with you,
Can't you train somebody up to fit in Roosevelt's shoes,
Or we'll make him run again because there's no one else to choose.
