I know a lad and when I feel
My pal is poor but I am dead
(Mother Verse) Friends may be few, friends may be bad He drives all me troubles a way,

sure He's bet - ter than most mil lion - aires,
true But I have one dear friend of old,

Tho' you have said "forget me";
Tho' you have said "goodbye";
You taught me love's deep meaning,
And love can never die.
Still in my dreams it always seems
We'll meet when clouds roll by.

I'll forget you when I can live without the sunshine,
I'll forget you when I can live without the rain,
When summer roses forget their fragrance
And the song bird his sweet refrain.
I'll forget you when all the silver of the moonlight,
Fades forever and ne'er will bring love's dream again;
When heaven's gladness has turned to sadness,—
I'll try to forget you in vain.

From all the world I chose you,
Heart of my heart to be;
Now you have left me sighing,
Tossing on love's great sea,
I pray love's star that gleams afar
May guide you back to me.
