An illustration depicting a scene from the operatic comedy. On the left, a man in a white, patterned tunic and trousers stands on a rocky ledge, playing a lute. He is looking upwards towards the right. On the right, a woman in a blue dress and orange shawl is suspended in a white basket, appearing to be falling or floating through the air. The background is a soft, painterly landscape with blue and white tones, suggesting a sky or a dreamlike atmosphere. The overall style is reminiscent of early 20th-century theatrical posters.
