Big city ways and its splendor
Somehow are starting to pall,
And I have a feeling
That often comes stealing,
To just get away from it all.

Let's ride away, let's hide away,
And leave the world behind us;
Let's find a vale 'way off the trail,
Where only God can find us.
Somewhere out there, where we can share
Our love 'neath skies of blue,
I'll build a shrine for me and mine,
Out there in the sunshine with you!

Out of the rush and the rabble,
Out when the days' work is done,
We'll both go a-finding
A pathway that's winding
It's way to a place in the sun.

Some - where out there, where we can share Our love 'neath skies of blue, — I'll build a shrine for me and mine. Out there in the sun-shine with you!

COME away, morning is breaking,
 Come away June-time is here,
 Birds are singing a merry song
 In the woodlands near!
 O'er the hills little clouds wander,
 Beams of gold shine in the blue;
 Come away, for the whole world is calling
 Alone for you!

Come away, life that was weary
 Wakes anew, happy and fair;
 Flow'rs will greet you and deck your pathway
 Just ev'rywhere!
 Sing a song, let it be joyous,
 Dream your dream, waiting is past;
 June will crown you with glory and rapture
 And love at last!

June's the time for roses,
 June's the time for love!
 June's the time for laughter,
 When the sunshine gleams above!
 Soon will come September, life will be so grey,
 So live each golden moment,
 Before it fades a way.
 For June's the time for wonderful roses,
 The time for love.
