ES in a dream, half hidden by your roses,
I see you still, with eyes that thrill!
Each path I tread some memory discloses
Of days gone by, a smile, a sigh!
Ah, happy hours, sunshine and flowers,
They seem to miss you, too!

Butterflies are hov'ring on the summer breeze,
Bees are busy in the fragrant vine;
Birds are mating in the trees,
Nature strives so hard to please,
Fate seems kind to ev'ry heart save mine!

All too slow the days creep by when you're away,
All too slow each sunrise comes anew!
This old world smiles all in vain,
'Cause I want you back again,
Just to hear you whisper: "I love you!"
