By JAMES KENDIS
and LEW BROWN

Moderato

The piano introduction consists of two systems of music. The first system features a treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody begins with a quarter rest, followed by a quarter note G4, a quarter note A4, and a quarter note B4. The bass clef staff provides accompaniment with chords. The second system continues the piano introduction, marked with a Vamp section. It includes dynamic markings such as f (forte), sfz (sforzando), and mf (mezzo-forte). The piece concludes with the word "A This" written above the final notes.

The first system of the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are: "rah rah rah rah col-lege boy Threw all his books a - way — He / rah rah rah rah col-lege boy Stood up in class and said — 'I". The piano accompaniment is written in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). It includes a dynamic marking of mp (mezzo-piano).

The second system of the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line continues with the lyrics: "said 'I've lost my ap-pe-tite My hair is turn - ing gray — I / looked up my ge - o - gra - phy And found that Shake-speare's dead — The". The piano accompaniment continues with the same key signature and time signature, featuring various chordal textures and melodic lines.

Twill be night time in Italy and Wednesday over here.

When they're bathing in Argentine don't ever try to milk a herring
Tall trees are high, no I don't mind
Yodel all you like, a mushroom's alway kind
If you haven't an appetite, then think of Paul Revere
When it's night time in Italy, it's Wednesday over here.
