"GLAD RAG DOLL"

(Recitation by Jack Yellen)

Rags! rags! rags!
Look! see the Parade of the Rags.
The silks and the satins, the velvets and lace
That drape lovely figures and add to their grace,
In colors that lure and attract and inflame.
They're costly and dainty — but rags just the same.

Rags! rags! rags!
On beautiful women and hags.
The rags for which someone demands heavy toll.
The price tag is plainly marked "body and soul!"
The rags that mean heartaches and sorrow and shame.
They're lovely and gorgeous — but rags just the same.

Rags! rags! rags -
The ragman will put into bags!
When into the ash can or gutter they're cast,
Their glitter and glory a thing of the past;
Too tattered for even the second-hand store;

(Music Tacet) Just a bundle of rags no one wants any more.

(To music of last half of chorus;
Pick up tempo; play "four-in-the-bar")

And so, my little doll, mark what I'm saying:
Those glad rags aren't worth the price that you're paying.
Don't make this the end, dear,
It's never too late to mend, dear;
Poor little Glad Rag Doll.
