Moderato

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, marked 'Moderato' and 'mf'. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second measure. The lyrics are: 'Our hands and eyes have met, our lips are friend - ly too'. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar pattern, featuring some harmonic changes in the right hand. The second line of the song begins with the lyrics: 'Don't you think that you should go and warn the fam' - ly'. The piano part continues with a similar accompaniment. The third line of the song begins with the lyrics: 'You owe your folks a debt, of con - fi - dence, it's true And'. The piano part continues with a similar accompaniment. The score ends with a final piano chord.
