bro-ken win-dow pane Oh how they'd yank him and spank him Oh how they'd fan him and tan him How he'd tease the girls — When in school he'd pull their curls — And tho' his marks were lower than Kid's much slow-er

 His lit-tle face was ruddy but not from stud-y

His mark was per-fect with the old bean blow-er, You ought to see him in a scrap, Oh, Bud dy! Peo-ple used to coax, — young Freck-les not to play his jokes, — The way he'd fool the vil-lage folks, it was a shame, —

And when the teach-er found a tack on her chair, Tho' a hun-dred chil-dren were there, —
 And when the cat had kit-tens up in the hay, One was black and sev-en were gray, —

Ev-'ry-bo - dy said 'FRECKLES!' he al-ways got the blame! — blame!

“LOVE’S ROSARY”

With its beautiful lyric and wonderful melody deserves the big success it has achieved all over America.

CHORUS With feeling

First she's a babe in a cradle, — Then a child at her dear mother's knee, — And her pearls are the tears she may shed thro' the years, Of the

Of the coming years to be,
 As she grows older she's counting life's beads,
 And learning her destiny,
 Later in life she's a true loving wife, and mother,
 That's Love's Rosary. (Copyright Leo Feist, Inc.)
