YOU-ALL GOT TO BE BORN AND BRED IN KENTUCKY

Lyric by
GUS KAHN

SONG

Music by GRACE LE BOY

Moderato

PIANO

VOICE

Ev'-ry day or two I hear a new Ken-tuck-y dit-ty
I just wish that I could use the lan-guage of a po-et.

Vamp

Writ-ten by some one who spent his life in Kan-sas cit-y. Folks write a-bout it but what can they know I'd sure write a-bout the south so all the world could know it. If I could paint, ev'-ry pic-ture so grand — When they've nev-er been south of Buf-fa-lo. Oh, they all love to sing a-bout those — Would be tak-en from life in Dix-ie-land. And if I on-ly knew just how to old Ken-tuck-y days. But they dont know a thing a-bout those sweet Ken-tuck-y ways.

writes sweet mel-o-dies. I'd try to make them sound just like that soothing south-ern breeze.

I was born there I ought to know — That this is so so true
 Old Ken-tuck-y I'd sing to you — Those words so true

CHORUS

You-all got to be born — and bred in Ken-tuck - y, to know what Ken-tuck - y means. — You've got to feel the thrills — of those Blue Grass Hills. — Breathe the air —

— the sun-shine kiss - es there. — And then you'll sigh for, cry for, die for Ken-tuck - y. You'll give your good right eye for Ken-tuck - y, But you've got to be born — and bred in Ken-tuck - y to know what Ken-tuck - y means. You-all means. — D.S.
