She's just an old fash - ioned girl, But she's not Tells not a thing that he hears, He's old and slow,

wise,
That's why I go down there to her For years he's heard them spoon in the cot - tage where we sit and spoon in the par - lor, Where same old room. The first time I went a - call - ing, I we had a friend you know well, He had four legs and he sat in that chair all a - lone, Then right a - way I could had two arms, If you can't guess I will tell, hear him say: If you can't spoon please go home,

Grand - ma loved it Grand - pa loved it. Geel but aint it swell.
Get some gir - lie, start in ear - ly, 'Cause you're all a - lone.

Chorus.

On the arm of the old arm chair, Ev - 'ry night you could find us there, Hav - ing lots of lov - in';

hav - ing lots of fun; Be - fore she kissed me she would al - ways put her chew - ing gum un - der the arm of the old arm chair, What a good time we had there. How we used to cud - dle, hud - dle, hud - dle, hud - dle. She said she'd al - ways miss me, then she'd roll her eyes and kiss me, On the arm, On the arm? On the arm of the old arm - chair. On the chair.
