

When Did You Write to Mother Last?

And then what did you say,
Her heart must ache a little with you so far away, Her dear kind face would brighten if you'd go home and stay, Just think a little while,
Of the things she used to do,
How she stood by your side when the world went back on you,
So pray for her each day,
Just to hold her dear love fast
If you forget, you will regret,
When did you write your mother last.

Moderato.

How are you Joe, — you sure must I won-der if — you can reknow, — I tell you boy, you're look-ing fine, — And tho' you call, — The one who wheeled you're ba - by cart, — I won-der roam — far from your home, — The old town folks think if — you stop at all, — To try, my boy, to Refrain.

Sup-pose I met you face to face, And tears up-on my cheeks you'd trace, I won-der if your heart would beat, And would your smile be just as sweet, Sup-pose I'd plead for one kind word, Would you then turn, from me an - heard, Or would you Chorus.

Don't you wish, dear old pal, you were back home a - gain, Where fond hearts, they are yearning for you? Don't you wish you could see the old red ap-ple tree, With it's blos-oms all cov-ered with dew? Don't you wish for a day, you could hide in the hay, Far a - way from all sor-row and pain, Don't you
