That's why you're a won - der - ful girl, I owe it all to you dear; I nev - er knew why the sky was blue, I nev - er knew how a heart could pine,

I nev - er knew why the ro - ses grew,
I nev - er knew why the sun should shine,

I nev - er knew I could be true, 'till I met you. —
I nev - er knew this world was mine, 'till I met you. —

CHORUS.

Oh you won-der-ful girl, what a won-der-ful girl you are, — p-f

You've made the world ap - pear to me, near to me, dear to me;

Oh those won-der-ful eyes thrill me through, It seems to me to be a won-der-ful world, since, I — met — you. — you. — D. S.

CHORUS

An-y place the old flag flies—no mat-ter where— I'm hap-py there— Un-der-neath the Yan-kee skies— Why old New York is just the same to me as Steu-ben-ville or Kan-ka-kee, I want to see that old flag rise— And know its there— I'm on the square— 'way down south or 'way up north or east or west it's

Words and Music by
GEO. M. COHAN.

CHORUS

Come to me, come for ev-er love, come to me, And you nev-er love, once re-gret you er-er met your Ro-me-o. Come to me, lit-tle beau-ty you, Come to me lit-tle cu-ty you. Come to me, I'll be true to you down in the dell we will dwell where I've got a lit-tle Bun-ga-low, where we'll cud-dle up, Bun-ga-low, where we'll hudd-le up, All we'll do is bill and coo so soft and low, Come to me,

Musical Moon.

Words and Music by
GEO. M. COHAN.

CHORUS.

That good old mu-sic-al moon, that they sing a-bout in ev-er-y tune, nev-er wear-ing out, paint-ed on the scen-ery of a mu-sic-al play, Fun-ny moon, Hon-ey moon, al-ways gets the moon-ey moon, Mu-sic-al moon, that rhymes with spoon and coon and June. Ev-ry first class sing-er it's been a good old moon for Girl and Boy, from "Te-tra-zino" to Ed-die Foy— Ev-er since the days of
