"BABY YOUR MOTHER"

(Like She Babied You)

RECITATION

Carelessness brings loneliness,
And loneliness brings pain,
Thoughtfulness makes happiness,
And sorrow's all in vain,
Little tears are drops of rain,
That come from clouds of grief,
And just to see the ones we love,
Brings sunshine and relief.
In cradle days your mother's love,
Was ever by your side,
To comfort you and care for you,
You were her joy and pride,
So now that you've grown older,
It's fair that she'll expect,
Some thoughtfulness and happiness,
And not your sad neglect,
Don't put off for to-morrow,
That visit—or a line,
To-morrow never seems to come,
Why make her poor heart pine,
Just put aside what you would call
Important—let it rest,
For who is more important,
Than the one who loves you best.

(Sung) The debt of love you owe her, you never can pay,
Go take her in your arms and kiss her tears away,
And baby your mother like she babied you,
Back in your baby days.
