Valse moderato.

The piano introduction is in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand features a series of chords and eighth-note patterns, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords and eighth notes. A first ending bracket is present at the end of the introduction.

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "A youth loved a maid but he was a - fraid To / They bore her the news, she could-n't re - fuse To". The piano part includes a piano (p) dynamic marking. The key signature remains one sharp.

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "lay his fond heart at her feet ——— But one hap - py day He / hear the sweet se - cret they told ——— For she loved the youth, So". The piano part includes a piano (p) dynamic marking. The key signature remains one sharp.

The third line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "thought of a way To tell her the se - cret so sweet ——— He / whis - pered the truth, A kiss on each pure heart of gold ——— She". The piano part includes a piano (p) dynamic marking. The key signature remains one sharp.
