When the sun was shi - ning bright, He'd make love with all his might,
Gwine to have a bar - be - cue, Gwine to roast an ox or two,

Lin - dy'd say: "You're act - ing like a loon, Don't come fuss - in' round at noon, Pos - sum pie — 'sim - mon jam and coon. Can't you hear the ban - jos ring, Night-time is the time to spoon, Un - der-neath the su - gar moon!"

Can't you hear Miss Lin - dy sing, Un - der-neath the su - gar moon?"

spoon-in', Croon a tune and keep on croon-in'; When you croon, croon a tune, that a coon can croon in June. For I love to hear you hum-min', And I dear-ly love to spoon; Be my lov-in' coon, tur-tle dov-in' coon,

Un-der-neath the su-gar moon. When the moon.
