Sham - rock is for - bid by law to grow on I - rish ground. St.— Ire - land's sons will ne'er for - get, the blood that they have shed.— You may sons with shame and sor - row from the dear ould soil will part.— I've heard musical notation for the second verse, including vocal line and piano accompaniment.

Pat - rick's day no more to keep, his col - or can't be seen, — For take the Sham-rock from your hat, and cast it on the sod, — But whis - per of a coun - try, that lies far be - yond the sae, — Where there's a blood-y law a - gin the wear - in' of the green, — I — 'twill take root and flour - ish still though un - der-foot 'tis trod, — When the rich, and poor stand e - qual in the light of free - dom's day, — Oh! — met with Nap - per Tan - dy, and he tuck me by the hand, — And he law can stop the blades of grass, from grow - ing as they grow, — And E - rin, must we leave you driv - en by the ty - rants hand, — Must we
