

SM 1798

2

HURRY UP THOSE WEDDING BELLS

Lyric by
ARTHUR LONGBRAKE

Music by
ED. EDWARDS.

Allegro

'Tis just a year since you told me Ma - ry dear, That you'd 'Twas like to - night and the moon shone just as bright, When I wed me when the moon Would a - gain shine down in June, asked you if you'd wed And for an - swer then you said,

Now is the time that you prom - ised to be mine, And Wait just a year till the next June days ap - pear, I Copyright 1911 by Longbrake and Edwards (inc.) Phila., Pa.

The Publishers reserve all mechanical rights.
International Copyright Secured.

wed - ding bells shall ring out soon; I've kissed you and you blushed so red; I've built the nest and now I've come to take you there with me, With-wait - ed as you bade me to al - though I've longed for you, And out you I'm as lone - ly as can be, The ev' - ry day my heart beats fond and true, So birds are sweet - ly sing - ing and they sing a wed - ding tune, 'Tis while the moon is shin - ing we will call the par - son in, And time to start our hon - ey - moon. When there's a let our hon - ey - moon be - gin.

Chorus.

moon in June it's time for us to hur - ry up those wed - ding bells, So let them ring, ring, ring, A joy - ful ding, ding, ding; ——— Now don't you fear, — my dear, — for there's no cause for wor - ry when that old bell tells, ——— That I'll al-ways cling to you when the clouds have hid the blue, So hur - ry up those wed - ding bells. ———