A boy, a Swed - ish
The boy, the Swed - ish boy to A - mer - i - ca came to stay, For a boy said 'neath the pine trees tall, I've a lit - tle hol - i - day, on a farm down Jer - sey cot - tage, gar - den small, for the fair - est flower of way. — A girl, — a coun-try girl, — in the all. — With you — my lit-tle rose, — what — quaint old gar - den stray'd — And on bend-ed knee, be joy my life — would be — For my gar-den sweet would made his plea and whis-pered pret-ty maid. — be com-plete, if you will bloom for me. —

Chorus.

I've a gar-den in Swed-en, In dear old

Swed - en, Where ev'- ry kind of po - sie grows. And my gar - den in Swed - en would be just like Ed - en, If you were there, my A - mer - i - can Beau - ty Rose. D.S.
