

SM 1839

2

The Wall Street Girl.

I Want A Regular Man.

Lyric by HAPGOOD BURT.

Music by KARL HOSCHNA.

Tempo di marcia.

I've
These

passed the age of pup - py love and spoon - ing, And it's time the wed - ding bud - ding Ro - me - os are not a - larm - ing. — I have my fill of bells for me were tu - ning, I wish you'd help me if you can, To suit - ors young and charm - ing, And now that I am twen - ty three, I find a real - ly hu - man man, Who'll mar - ry me and take me hon - ey - rath - er feel it's up to me, To set - tle down and do some stock - ing

5555
M.W. & SONS 12239-4

Copyright MCMXI by M. Witmark & Sons.
International Copyright Secured.

moon - ing; I'm through with ma - ma's pets and pa - pa's darn - ing; He need - n't be an an - gel for I joys, Who live on cig - a - rettes and lots of noise, know The an - gel men have died off long a - go,

I want a man who has some sense, One who has had ex - pe - ri - ence, I'm I want a man who's on the square, Just name the day and I'll be there With tired of col - lege yells and Wil - lie boys.

tress - es in an or - ange blos - som bow.

REFRAIN.

All I want is a reg- u - lar man, I want a

marcato

reg- u - lar man, or none at all!

One who's on the A - mer - i - can plan, And wears a hat that's not too small.

All I want is a reg-u-lar man, — With should-ers wide, and six feet tall; — I want a man who has some brains, One who has red blood in his veins; I want a reg-u-lar man, that's all! — all! —