

SM 1860

Dedicated to The Fellows Club of Pittsburg, Pa.

LIGHT UP YOUR FACE WITH A SMILE.

Advice by
WILL D. COBB

Tuned by
GUS EDWARDS

Allegro

ff

Vamp

p

1. Did you ev - er "get" the Fel - low with the Face be - hind the Frown, Kind - a 2. In the sad slate col - ored dawn - ing of the morn - ing known as next, When your likes it too that frown, Would - n't swap it for a crown, He's the suff'ring soul is vexed, Take this tid - bit for your text, To ap - broth-er of his sis-ter, lit-tle Peach Be-hind the Pout, When pre-ci-ate one's heav-en, One must have a lit-tle well, How Fun knocks at their door they both are out, On life's pleas-ure fol-lows pain is one they tell, That dark rail-way half their laughs are o-ver-due, Their cloth-ing cloud thing too is good for me and you, It makes the too is e-ven blue, Pres-ent blue sky twice as blue, Names I com - pa - ny ex - cept - ed, No I did - n't say sus - pect - ed, But if nev - er care to men - tion, But just pay this some at - ten - tion, When your he or she should hap - pen to be you. _____ train of thought a tun - nel's pass - ing through. _____

p

cresc.

REFRAIN

Light up, Light up, Light up your face, Light up your face with a p f

smile, _____ For the man who can win, is the man who can grin, O - pen your face and let the sun shine in. Cheer up Pal - ly, Gal - ly, give it a trial, It's got Mis - ter Mel - an - chol - y beat a mile, Just you hold back that tear, till there's no - bod - y near, And light up your face with a smile. smile. _____