

SM 1869

SINCERELY DEDICATED TO MISS ZEDA NIXON, ANN ARBOR, MICH.

Make Your Hay While The Sun Shines, And Do Your Loving By The Moon

Words by JACK YELLEN

Music by GEORGE L. COBB

Moderato

The musical score is written in 2/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It begins with a piano introduction marked 'Moderato' and 'f' (forte). The introduction consists of two staves of piano accompaniment. The first system of the song features a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'Deac-on Jones and Dea-con Jones'es son were When the moon came out that ver-y night, the mak-ing hay one day. Deac-on sent his son to get a rake, from a son was right on hand. For to do his lov-ing by the moon, was his'. The piano accompaniment includes dynamic markings such as 'mf' (mezzo-forte) and 'fz' (forzando). The score is divided into three systems, each with a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The first system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The second system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign. The third system ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Copyright MCMXI by H.C. Weasner & Co., Buffalo, N.Y.
Entered according to the Act of Parliament of Canada in the year MCMXI by H.C. Weasner & Co., at the Department of Agriculture.

farm-er 'cross the way.— On the road he met pret-ty lit - tle Su-san Brown and they fath-er's own com - mand.— And he spooned with Sue un-der - neath the ap-ple tree 'til old stopped to chat_ a-bout the weath-er for a while. Deac-on caught them spoon-ing Brown cried down_ you bet-ter get; its near-ly three. Said the son; not yet; the and he said to his off spring with a smile: _____

moon's a - bove, and my fath - er said to me: _____

CHORUS

Make your hay while the sun shines and do your lov-in' by the

p-f

moon. — There's a time for work and there's a time for play; There's a time to hug and spoon. — Now, the sun's for hay, but the time for love is when the moon and stars are up a - bove. So make your hay while the sun shines and do your lov-in' by the moon. — moon. —

D.S.