when I pipes some poor young kids whose dad's a mil - lion - aire, I wears his Sun - day clothes to school and cross my heart, it's true! He chokes with in - dig - na - tion, I'm so sor - ry, on the square.

has to have a nurse to shoot his mar - bles for him, too.

CHORUS

Gee! it must be tough to be a rich man's kid! I bet there's lots wot wish-es they wuz me. — A pick - in' out a poor dad's'bout the best thing that I did, I would-nt change him for no Car-ne - gie. I know a kid what has to have his face washed ev-'ry day And twice on Sunday, talk of eru-elty! I aint tell-in' you no lies, they cant ev - en make mud pies, Poor rich kids_ theyhas my sym - per - fee! fee!
