live and die in Dix - ie land, through cot - ton fields to roam - And Whom I loved with all my heart, from whom I ne'er would part, - I spend my days 'mid scenes I used to know. _____ Well felt so blue that I be - gan to sigh. _____ I

I went home and saw my folks and stayed with them a - while But I wrote a let - ter to her ask - ing her to come to me, And missed the girl whom I had left be - hind, _____ So share my home in good old Dix - ie Land, _____ But when they saw I did - n't smile but sat a - round and sighed, They as the days went roll - ing by and no an - swer came, I told me of a plan that eased my mind. could - n't rest 'till I saw her a - gain. So

CHORUS

I just came back from dear old Dix - ie Land, I loved it there It sure was grand; My folks were glad to see me, 'cause they missed me so, — When I told them I was in love,

They said I'd bet-ter go and bring my lit-tle girl-ie home to

Dix-ie Land, So I came back here a - gain, — To say to you my dear, let us go from hereto Dix - ie Land. —
