knit him fan - cy ties — And once she said, with blush - es red, "You kissed me in a dream — And if you'd hug your "hon - ey - bug" No have such love - ly eyes! — Now Wal - do, feel at one could hear me scream" — Then Wal - do whis - pered ease — And try some pie and cheese, — You this — "In mar - ried life there's bliss" — And need a wife to share your life but you are hard to please!" Bel - la said "we'll soon be wed and al - ways hug and kiss."

CHORUS.

Is there an - y - thing else that I can do to please you? — Is there

p-f an - y - thing else that I can do for you? — I have heard of love and kiss - es and the joy they bring a - bout, But you cresc.

nev - er ev - en hug me, dear - ie, when you are go - ing out. Is there an - y - thing else that I can do to win you — From a teas - ing, pleas - ing, squeez - ing point of view? — If you'll name our wed - ding day, I'll keep my moth - er far a - way, Is there an - y - thing else that I can do for you? Is there you? —
