

SM 2088

2

I wish My Honeymoon would Shine

Lyric by WILL M. HOUGH.

Music by BEN M. JEROME.

All? Mod?o

mf

Beane) Oh, I know a girl, a fa - ci - nat - ing girl, I hope some day to call her (Marjory) It's no use to sigh, it does no good to cry, Be - cause no bod - y seems to mine; — (Marjory) And I know a man, he's just my sort of man, I'm care: — (Kooie) The world rolls a - long, tho' ev' - ry - thing seems wrong, And think - ing of him all the time: — (Kooie) And I know a boy, such a some - one. is lone - ly ev' - ry - where: — (Beane) It's a fun - ny world, it's a Copyright, MCMXII, by Joe. M. Harris. International Copyright Secured.

 Rights for Mechanical Instruments Reserved.

hon - ey boy, Yet he keeps me wait - ing all a - lone; (All) So mon - ey world Not a hon - ey world at all to you (All) Un - here's a lit - tle tune, to praise the hon - ey moon, The til at last you greet the one you've longed to meet, To sweet - est moon that ev - er shone.

 make the dreams you've dreamed come true.

REFRAIN

Slow
 I wish my hon - ey moon — would shine.

I've wait - ed such a long, — lone time,

Start to shine — and keep on shin - ing, Just to stop — my heart from pin - ing, Shine up - on — me morn - ing, night and noon: ————— Some - bod - y loves me, hon - ey moon. Some-where she's wait - ing, hon - ey moon. I've been search - ing till I'm wear - y

Won't you let me find you, dear - ie? Gee! I wish my hon - ey moon would shine! shine!

