

SM 2149

2

Please Don't Take My Lovin' Man Away.

Words by
LEW BROWN.

Music by
ALBERT VON TILZER.

Moderato.

mf

f

p

Slower

I've cried till my heart's broke in There's plen - ty of fish in the two — And I don't know just what to do — Be - cause I brook — And all that you need is a hook — But I have

All Rights Reserved
All Performing Rights Reserved

Copyright MCMXII by The York Music Co.
Albert Von Tilzer, Mgr.
1367 Broadway, New York

International Copyright Secured

heard you say you'll steal my man a - way And nev - er let him had my wish and al - so caught my fish And now I find it's see his lov - ing lit - tle ba - by I nev - er knew till to - day — That migh - ty hard to try and hold him you sure have won that man's heart — And you'd ev - er treat me this way — 'Cause you know I'm wild a - bout now that I feel we must part — Just lis - ten once more while I

my an - gel child So I hope you'll let him stay. — plead as be - fore Please don't take my one sweet - heart. —

CHORUS.

If I miss that kiss that brings me bliss then I will sigh — Yes I will

p-f sigh — If I lose that hug from my kiss-ing bug, then I will cry, cry and may-be die If that man ain't near to call me dear, I'm bound to go in - sane, I fear, So on my knees, I beg you please

Kiss his pic - tures in the frames Call him all the sweet - est names

Write him let - ters ev - 'ry day I wont mind the things you say. 'Cause Passionate. Tempo I.

I love, I love him on - ly Please don't take my lov - ing man a - way. If I - way.

Please don't take &c 4