

SM2333

I Never Heard Of Anybody Dying From A Kiss. ³

(Did You?)

Words by Andrew B. Sterling.

Music by Harry Von Tilzer.

Piano. Moderato. f

Till Ready. p

John - ny and Ma - til - da
John - ny kept a coax - ing,

sit - ting on a wall, Spoon - ing in the moon - light
coax - ing for a kiss, "Guess I'll have to try one"

no one 'round at all, Kiss your "Toot - sie Woot - sie"
said this lit - tle miss, Then she start - ed kiss - ing

Copyright MCMXIII by Harry Von Tilzer Music Pub. Co. 125 W. 43rd St. New York.
All Rights Reserved. International Copyright Secured.
³ The Publisher reserves the right to the use of this Copyrighted work upon the parts of Instruments serving to reproduce it Mechanically.

am:m.

soft - ly he would sigh, She would an - swer "If I ev - er when he got his breath, He said "Hon - ey stop, or you - will kissed you I would die;" He'd say "You're a shy young have me kissed to death;" Tillie sigh - ed "I'll keep right

maid," "Come on and dont you be a - fraid"
on;" 'Cause you know what you told me John.

Chorus.

I nev - er heard of a - ny - bod - y dy - ing, from kiss - ing, did

p-f

you? — I oft - en heard a pret - ty maid - en sigh - ing, From miss - ing a kiss or two, — When you get a kiss,

When you kiss a girl,

don't you start to faint, You may think a kiss is going to und - er - neath the rose, Don't you mind a lit - tle bit of kill you but it ain't 'Cause I nev - er heard of a - ny - bod - y pow - der on her nose.

dy - ing, From steal - ing a kiss did you? — I you? —

D.S.