EXTRA VERSES

3rd VERSE

Married folks will tell you to tarry,
They advise you never to marry,
Wedded bliss they claim is but
Delusion and a' snare:
When you hear some henpeck a raving
Of his tyrant wife,
You murmur, "Gee! I'm glad I'm free,
I will lead the single life!"

CHORUS

All the time you say you will,
But you know you won't, No, you won't!
You say "I like my freedom still!"
And you know you don't, No, you don't!
And you say, with glee, "No one bosses me!
If I do take a chance,
I will still wear the pants!"
All the time you know you won't.

4th VERSE

Life at home no longer is cheery,
You no longer call your wife "Dearie,"
She has just laid down the law,
"You must stay home at night!"
Then your tide of anger arises,
You can hardly speak,
You say, with fire, "If I desire,
I will stay out for a week!"

CHORUS

All the time you say you will,
But you know you won't, No, you won't!
You say "I rule my own home still,"
And you know you don't, No, you don't!
For you know you'll do as she tells you to,
Tho' you're willing to bet,
That you'll train her right yet,
All the time you know you won't.
