Ukulele in D Tuning

Words and Music by
W. C. HANDY

Piano

The first system of piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). It features a series of chords and melodic lines. The bass staff begins with a bass clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C), providing a harmonic foundation with chords and a steady bass line.

The second system of piano accompaniment continues the musical piece with two staves. The treble staff contains chords and melodic fragments, while the bass staff provides a consistent harmonic support with chords and a bass line.

I hate to see— de ev'nin' sun go down
 Been to de Gypsy to get ma for - tune tole
 You ought to see— dat stovepipe brown of mine

The third system of piano accompaniment features two staves. The treble staff includes guitar chord diagrams above the notes. The bass staff continues the harmonic accompaniment with chords and a bass line.

Hate to see— de eve-nin' sun go down.
 To de Gypsy done got ma for - tune tole.
 Lak he owns de Di-mon Jos - eph line.

The fourth system of piano accompaniment concludes the piece with two staves. The treble staff features chords and melodic lines, while the bass staff provides the final harmonic accompaniment with chords and a bass line.
