

SM 2698

2 Since Home Rule's Come To Ireland.

Words by Jamie Kelly.

Music by Frank Mullane.

Moderato.

Piano

The sun-burst of old Er - in will be shin -
The sons of dear old Gran - na all u - ni - ing, Out on her moun-tains a - gain, ted, The dream at last will be true,

Copyright MCMXIV by Maurice Richmond Music Co., Inc. 145 W. 45th St. N.Y.
International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved.
The Publishers reserve the right to the use of this Copyrighted Work upon the parts of Instruments serving to reproduce it mechanically.

The Harps of the min-strels will be sound -
Of men who fought and bled for dear old Ire - ing, Through ev - 'ry val - ley and glen, Since the land, And glad - ly died for it too, Their glad news came to Ire - land "Old Er - in you are free, And names are carved in hist - 'ry They'll nev - er pass a - way, Now soon you'll grace the loft - y place, That - long has wait - ed thee."

you can hear the might - y cheer, Pro - claim - ing free - dom's day. -

4

Chorus.

Since home rule has come to Ire - land,

p-f

Er - ins sons now all u - ni - ted stand,

For the glo - ry of their sire - land

*Teo. **

Ta - ra's harp's shall ring through-out her hall's so grand,

Cen - tu - ries in si - lence they have laid, The brok - en chords a - gain will soon be played, — And each morn at the break of day, You'll hear the old time pi - pers play, Since home rule's come to Ire - - land. land.