

SM 2750

2

When I'm Sailing On The Nancy Lee

Words by ARCHIE FLETCHER

Music by DOMER BROWN and CARVER BENSON

Allegro Moderato

f

fz

p

Vamp

See that steam-boat puf - fin' ov - er 'cross the bay, —
Look my hon - ey, look old dea - con Jones is here, —

p

That's the "Nan - cy Lee" I'd glad - ly bet my pay, —
Did you see him climb a - board down at the pier, —

Copyright 1914 by Joe Morris Music Co. 145 W. 45th St. New York N.Y.

The Publishers reserve the right to the use of this Music or Melody for any Mechanical Instruments.

International Copyright Secured.

All Rights Reserved

Albert & Son Australian Agents Sydney.

Here comes Un - cle Joe, and old Aunt - ie Cloe, Po - sey Deane and He'll be teach - ing you, he'll be preach - ing too, Gold - en rules of Har - vey Green her Sun - day beau, Here comes cous - in Sun - day school my hon - ey dear, 'Deed Miss Lu - cy

Al - ex with his rag - time band, Look at him a I have brought the wed - ding band, Let us have the strut - tin' like he owned the land, Gee Im glad to be up - preach - er join us hand in hand, There's goin' to be a great big on the sea, — On the decks of the Nan-cy Lee?

ju - bi - lee, — On the decks of the Nan-cy Lee?

CHORUS

When I go sail - ing, sail - ing on the Nan-cy Lee, — A - dip - pin' and a - rock - in' with my heart in glee, —

p-f

dip - pin' and a - rock - in' with my heart in glee, —
Cap - tain, Cap - tain you will hear me shout, — Here's my

Cap - tain, Cap - tain you will hear me shout, — Here's my Here's my tick-et here's my tick-et, I'm no roust-a - bout, — When I go sail-ing, sail - ing take a tip from me. — There'll be no oth-er steam-boat in the world for me, — And wed-ding bells will chime — be-low the Dix-ie line,

Way down up-on the Swa - nee Riv-er, When I'm sailing on the Nancy Lee. Lee. —