

2
SM 3268

Put On Your Slippers And Fill Up Your Pipe

(You're Not Going Bye-Bye To-Night)

Words by
ED. P. MORAN & WILL A. HEELAN

Music by ALBERT VON TILZER

Moderato

VOICE

The Jones - es had been married just a week and sev - en days — At The Jones - es climbed the so - cial lad - der sev - en rungs or more — She home they sat a - lone — When Jone - sey got a phone, He said "Gee whiz a man can't spend a got a chaf - ing dish — He bought a soup and fish, He had it on him sev - ral times, but night home now - a - days, That's Brown, he's aw - ful sick I must go see him quick, What not out - side his door, One night he said I guess I'll leave you dear, and dress, Im puz - zles me is what I should put on" She said; "that's no puz - zle here's the ans - wer, John."

speak - er at the swell - est of af - fairs She said; "I'm the speak - er don't put on those airs."

CHORUS

Put on your slip-pers and fill up your pipe— You're not go - ing "bye-bye" to - Put on your slip-pers and fill up your pipe— You're not go - ing "bye-bye" to - night _____ No earth - ly use mak - ing that old ex - cuse— Let me tell you night _____ No earth - ly use mak - ing that old ex - cuse— Right here you're a kid-do You're mar-ried to a wid - ow 'Phone down to Brown - ie I know it's a shame — fix-ture Get out your old "Duke's Mix-ture" Keep up your pipe dreams, but don't be mis - lead —

Tell him that I said your ex - cuse is too lame, And give my re - gards to the boys in the When your pipe goes out smoke your Mec - ca's in - stead, Then put on your night - ie, and crawl in - to game, You're not go - ing "bye-bye" to night. night. _____

 bed, You're not go - ing "bye-bye" to night. night. _____