

The Trail To Sunset Valley

SM 3312

by L. WOLFE GILBERT and LEWIS F. MUIR

Moderato

Slow with espressione

Show me the way to I'm sat-is-fied to sail, Show me the way by rail I've hunt-ed night and day I've tried to pay, Don't mind so much by day But when the night-time falls It's then the find my way; Here in a land so free, One place de-nied to love-bird calls; And in my land of dreams, I'm back a-gain it me, I won-der if my heart's de-sire, Cares and waits for me seems, I hold her hand and whis-per love-words, On-ly in my dreams

I'd like to find the trail that leads to Sun-set Val - ley Oh that won-der-ful

Val - ley Where the Eve-ning Time Moon shines down on lov - ers, Where the love-bird and her mate are al - ways pal - ly And that is where I met her my on - ly beau-ti - ful

La - - - dy And like a fool so false I proved to be, That ev-er since that place is lost to me I'd like to find the trail to Sun-set Val-ley down by the mountain side I'd like to side
