

2 SM 3460

He's Doing His Bit

(For The Girls.)

Words by BERT HANLON.

Music by
HARRY VON TILZER

Piano. f

Now lit - tle Wil - lie New - ton knew his coun - try was re - cruit - in, But he Now Wil - lie spoke no Ger - man, but the words of Gen - ral Sher - man He could thought he owed a du - ty o - ver here So when they start - ed call - ing, lit - tle un - der - stand in an - y for - eign tongue He hat - ed am - mu - ni - tion, but he

Wil - lie start - ed stall - ing He dis - cov - ered he had trou - ble with his ear He cheers when e'er the filled up with am - bi - tion When he heard the name of Mis - ter Brig - ham Young He nev - er goes on ban - ner it un - furls And he has - n't claimed ex - emp - tion from the girls.

du - ty till it's dark And his trench - es are the bench - es in the park.

Chorus.

He's do-ing his bit for the girls, the love-ly love-ly girls — Rose and Fay, Lil and May with He's do-ing his bit for the girls, for fif-ty nif-ty girls — Fat and small thin and tall, with dark or gold-en curls — When his pals are fight-ing in the trench-es now-a-days — Wil-lie's do-ing dark and gold-en curls — While the boys are charg-ing o-ver there a-cross the pond — Wil-lie's run-ning pick-et du-ty in the cab-a-rets; He's rout-ing and scout-ing for girls — for sweet, Pe-tite young charge ac-counts to cap-ture off a blonde, He's do-ing his bit for the girls — for sweet and neat young girls — He buys them rub-ies mo-tor cars and pearls — Now Wil-lie is a pac-i-fist and girls — He buys them rub-ies mo-tor cars and pearls — He nev-er threw a bomb from an-y gen-tle, don't you see — But when he sees a wo-man he's as wild as he can be. — He watch-es bat-tle aer-o-plane — But he can throw the bull as well as an-y one in Spain — He shoots them hard and stands on guard, He's do-ing his bit for the girls. — He's girls. — all they're bound to fall, He's do-ing his bit for the girls. — He's girls. —