

I'll Be Somewhere In France.

Lyric by GEORGE V. HOBART.

Music by RAYMOND HUBBELL.

Moderato.

VOICE. GIRL.

Have you got to go a - way and

Piano. f dim p

BOY.

leave me and grieve me! I've got to go a - way and fight! — Have you got to leave me here a - sigh - ing and cry - ing! I've Copyright 1917 by Gene Buck and Raymond Hubbell.

GIRL. BOY.

5515-3 All Rights Reserved.

International Copyright Secured.

got to bat-tle for_ the_ right!_ When the twi-light falls and GIRL. BOY. GIRL.

I'm ov-er there When I'm all a-lone Send up a prayer! Will you

BOY. GIRL.
hear me! You'll be near me! Then I'll pray both day and night. —

Refrain.
BOY.
Kiss me dear the bu-gle calls me! calls me off to war! ——— Hold me close while love en - thralls me

Red. * Red. * Red. * Red. * Red. * Red. *

Then say "Au re - voir" ——— Sweet and love - ly

Red. *

let your smile be While you have the — chance — Love me! Ve - ry

Red. *

soon, dear, I'll be some-where in France. France. —

1 2