"There's Something About You, Makes Me Love You"

Words and Music by HENRY LEWIS, BERNIE GROSSMAN & ARTHUR LANGE.

Piano.

f Till Ready. p

I can't sleep 'cause I keep think-ing of some - thing, And you are the one thing
I love you but I don't know how to hold you, Should I pet or scold you, that's troub-ling my brain. Some-how it seems you're in my dreams since the day that I or leave you a - lone. You know quite well you ought to tell if you're on - ly de - met you, I've tried to for - get you, but all in vain.

ceiv - ing, Shall I keep be - liev - ing, you'll be my own.

Chorus.

If you don't want me, Why don't you come and tell me, Why do you haunt me

All thro' the night and day. I've tried so hard to find the rea-son why you are so pleas-in', If you're on-ly teas-in' Why don't you keep a-way. — Your eyes just dare me, And then a-gain they scare me, You've got me go-ing No mat-ter what I do. At times I find I kind o' doubt you, I sim-ply can-not live with-out you, There's some-thing a-bout you makes me love you. I you don't you.
