Andantino espressivo.

Piano. mf rit. e dim.

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, featuring a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The tempo is marked 'Andantino espressivo' and the dynamics range from mezzo-forte (mf) to ritardando and diminuendo (rit. e dim.).

For - ty years a - go, that's the time I know, Kate and I were married in the Saved up ev - 'ry cent, just to pay the rent And to clothe the children when to

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the grand staff. The piano part includes a p (piano) dynamic marking. The lyrics are: "For - ty years a - go, that's the time I know, Kate and I were married in the Saved up ev - 'ry cent, just to pay the rent And to clothe the children when to".

month of May; Times were hard, you see! hard for Kate and me, school they'd go; Till one Summer's day, Kate was laid a - way,

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "month of May; Times were hard, you see! hard for Kate and me, school they'd go; Till one Summer's day, Kate was laid a - way,".

Still our hearts were cheer - ful all the live - long day;
 Down there, near the hill - side where the flow - ers grow;

The third line of the song concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Still our hearts were cheer - ful all the live - long day; Down there, near the hill - side where the flow - ers grow;".
