by BILLY BASKETTE
and JESSIE SPIESS

Moderato

I've got to
This lit-tle

leave my Car-o-line, A lit-tle card said it was time, And Mis-ter trip a-cross the sea, To Pic-a-dil-ly and Pa-ree, Is just the Lo-cal Board said I must drop all things and fall in line, Now I thing that I've been long-ing for, It's just what suit-ed me, Now the don't want sym-pa-ty, But I want the world to see, They girls of France are fine, 'Cause they're smil-ing all the time, But sure-ly called up-on the right man, when they called on me.

not a sin-gle one I found, Com-pares with Car-o-line.

CHORUS

I'm goin' to fight my way right back to Car-o - li - na, I'm goin' to run ev-ry Hun, ev-ry son of a gun, I see, De-pend on me, Cause I'm in this thing to win, And I know that it's no sin, To grab a lit-tle Ger-man, An-y lit-tle Her-man and carve my name on him. And I am sat-is - fied that Car-o - lin - a loves me, I left my heart with her in Dix-ie-land, She'll un-der-stand, That I may come back with some-thing miss-in' But that wont keep us from hug-gin' and kiss - in', When I fight my way right back to my Car - o - line I'm goin' to line.

Im Goin'to fight etc. 2
