Oft in the still-ness a-round me A dear face I seem to see All thru the grey twi-light still-ness E-choes that dear old song

Old mammy Cloe down in Mis-sou-ri Your gen-tle voice comes to me And fills my heart with ten-der mem-'ries Mem'ries that last a life long

You told me tales of dream-land Where the fair-ies used to be And a Coal black was my old mam-my But her heart was white as snow And her thrill seems to fill my poor heart still When I think how you crooned to me voice was as sweet as an An-gel's When she sang to me long a-go

CHORUS

When you sang Hush-a-bye ba-by to me, Hush-a-bye Hush-a-bye bye 'Twas way down in dear old Mis-sou-ri I heard that quaint lull-a-by Hush-a-bye my ba-by go to sleep on mam-mys knee And soon with the sand-man I'd be How I long for those old dream days When you sang Hush-a-bye ba-by to me. When you me.
